

Ehrling

ABOUT

Swedish Artist Ehrling (Born Harald Ehrling, 1995 in Stockholm, Sweden). He started playing piano at eight years old and learned the basics of creating catchy melodies. This led him to download a music program to his computer at the age of thirteen. Harald can clearly remember the first time he had made a song and his older brother ran into his room, asking what the song was called and who the artist was. This had a big impact on Haralds confidence and made him continue his journey to keep creating more music.

During the next couple of years Ehrling had created a whole catalogue of music on SoundCloud. He had found his characteristic sound - the saxophone. Almost all of Ehrling work have saxophone in them and he choose this instrument because he felt that it was a good substitute for vocals. By using the sax, Ehrling could express his feelings like he was singing them. At the age of twenty Ehrling started to create a huge buzz amongst travel vloggers on YouTube. These were the perfect collaborations since these vloggers often had a very tropical feeling to their content, which aligned with Ehrlings music exceptionally. This led to even more YouTubers using his music. At one point Ehrling was one of the top three most used copyright free musicians on YouTube.
